Contents

Preface ...................................................................................................................... 9

Svetlana Babkina. The Laws of the Temple and the Proper Sleep in Biblical and Rabbinic traditions ................................................................. 12

Natalya Kireeva. “A Third of All Nights”: Qumran Laws on the Night-Time Sacred Texts Studies ................................................................. 33

Mikhail Karanaev. Marriage Prohibitions in the Hasmoneans’ Dynastic Politics ...................................................................................... 43

Anna Luneva. Prayer “Birkat ha-Minim” (“Blessing of heretics”) and the Ban on Participation in the Synagogue Liturgy ......................... 56

Valery Dymshits. Commandment or Good Deed? The Concept of Mitzvah in the Traditions of East European Jews ...................................................... 67

Victoria Mochalova. Jewish Minority in the Context of Polish Law ......................... 76

Tatyana Khizhaya. “No Worshipping the Images of Saints...” : the Perception of the Biblical Prohibition in the Culture of the Russian Subbotniks in the 18th–19th Centuries .......................... 115

Aleksandr Ostrovskii. Russian Peasants’ Beliefs on “Krovosmeshenie” in the Late 19th Century (on Materials of Fund of Vladimir N. Tenishev) ........................................ 134

Danila Rygovskiy. “Pure”, “Profane” and “Filthy”: Old Believers’ Conceptualization of Ritual Purity ........................................ 167

Galina Zelenina. Family, Philosophy, Fitness: On Female Education in a Chassidic Community ............................................. 187

Igor Semenov. The Mountain Jews Rituals Shende, Oftum and Kekul, and Prescriptions Associated with Them .......................... 204

Aleksandra Pesetskaia. “All is White”: The Prohibitions of the Doctrine and Practice of the Mari Sect Kugu Sorta ..................... 212

Svetlana Pogodina. Contemporary Money Magic: Taboos and Prescriptions (on Latvian Material) ........................................ 228

Olga Belova. Etiology of Prohibitions and Regulations in the Mirror of Folk Legends and Beliefs ............................................... 246

Valentina Zaporozhets. Prohibitions and Regulations in Poshekhonye ............................................................................. 266

Galina Eliasberg. Prohibitions and Prescriptions about Family Life in the Work of I. Teneromo .............................................. 274